

A midsummer nights dream of visiting

Birmingham

Make plans now for a vacation your family will never forget.

Save $100/person Registration fees increase from $280/person to $330/person 15 December; and increase from $330/person to $380/person 31 March 2009. Hotels close to convention hall sell out first. Popular ticketed events sell out. Register early to get your preferred hotel.

Online registration and information

Go to www.rotaryconvention2009.com or go to www.taptrain.com/birmingham. Goto www.rsc.org.uk for the Royal Shakespeare Company's performance schedule.

Rotary's 100th Convention Birmingham England June 21-24, 2009

Sleep in Shakespeare's hometown

Rotary's hotel reservation form includes five hotels in nearby Stratford-upon-Avon. The Rotary Convention bus connects you to the Birmingham convention hall. Let William Shakespeare, the greatest writer in the English language and the world's preeminent dramatist inspire your youngsters. Book extra days before or after the convention to take the Shakespeare tour ranging from Ann Hathaway's cottage where the young Shakespeare wooed his wife to be, including Hall's Croft home of Dr. John Hall and his wife Susanna (daughter of William Shakespeare and Ann Hathaway), and see the graves of the Bard and his family members. For tickets to Shakespearean plays, go to: rsc.org.uk. What's on gives Royal Shakespeare Company's June 2009 performances in Stratford-Upon-Avon. If next summer's schedule is not yet posted, see an example of when and where Shakespeare's works are performed.

Ann Hathaway's cottage where the young Shakespeare wooed his wife to be.